Nuisance Wild Animal Referral Book

We appreciate your interest in our referral book. This is our 10th consecutive year for providing this handbook and we continue to provide a practical and dependable solution to human and wild animal conflicts.

Our members listed in this handbook can provide assistance in exclusion, habitat modification as a deterrent, population reduction and maintenance, or zero tolerance management. Additionally, we are committed to educating the public to better understand wild animal behavior and conflict resolution process.

Due to the variety of species and problems we encounter, you may have to contact more than one individual to resolve a specific problem. This service is not part of any state or federal governmental program; therefore the personnel are a private party entity and may assess a fee for their services.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and we thank you for your continued support!

Landowner Provisions

Reprinted from the 2003 Trapping Regulations

The owner or occupant of any land, and family members who reside on the land,

Do not need a license to:

- Trap coyotes, beaver, foxes, raccoon, woodchucks, rabbits and squirrels on the land year-round.
- Live trap with cage traps for beaver, rabbits, raccoons and squirrels on the land at any time in cities, villages or other areas where the discharge of firearms is unlawful. Live trapped animals must be either killed or released within 24 hours on private land with the landowner's permission.

- Beaver Damage Control: Landowners, occupants, and family members may hunt or trap beaver on their land at anytime without a license. Landowners may also trap on beaver dams. Beaver dams may be removed without a permit.
- See DNY publication no. WM-007, Beaver Damage Control, or contact local DNR office for more information.
